

Assignments for Mr. Penman :: Week of March 30, 2020 through April 3, 2020

Chemistry

We are starting a new unit, "Ionic Bonds". All materials and resources will be in Google Classroom. I will also have some vocabulary up for practice on Quizlet.com. This week will consist of reading and questions, as well as a quiz at the end of the week. The quiz will be online at Google Classroom.

Please communicate if internet access is an issue, and a hardcopy of assignments will be provided.
