Remember to pre-order your yearbook for $50 each. In addition, parents of seniors and eighth graders can place “shout out” ads to their kids for a reasonable fee and business ad spaces are still available. For additional information please contact Mrs. Galaviz at 748-8552 or galavizk@adnaschools.org. (There are also a limited number of past year’s books available for purchase).

SENIOR PICTURES
If you have not turned in your senior pictures or baby pictures, please do so immediately. For information please contact Mrs. Galaviz at 748-8552 or galavizk@adnaschools.org.

Attendance Law Public Notice on Truancy - According to Washington State Code (WAC), “parents of any child eight years of age and under eighteen years of age shall cause such child to attend school, and such child shall have the responsibility to and therefore shall attend for the full time when such a school may be in session. Parents of any child six or seven years old, who have enrolled the child in school, shall cause the child to attend school.” According to the statute as stated in policy, “any law enforcement officer authorized to make arrests can take a truant child into custody without a warrant and must then deliver the child to the parent or to the school.”

Dangerous Weapons - It is a violation of district policy and state law for individuals outside of law enforcement to carry firearms or dangerous weapons on school premises, school provided transportation or other areas being used for school.

Section 504 - Free and Appropriate Public Education - Section 504 information regarding free and appropriate public education for any qualified student with a disability is also available from the student support office, which may be contacted at (360) 748-0362.

Special Education Program - Any application and any required policies/procedures related to special education programs are available from the student support office, which may be contacted at (360) 748-0362.

Pesticides - The District maintains records of pesticide application. Prior to planned application, notices are posted near or at the application site. For questions please contact the Adna School District at (360) 748-0362.

It’s been a productive/busy week for our FFA/agriculture program at Adna. It started off with a visit to the livestock auction, then placing third at the District III jamboree, and moving into our NEW greenhouse today! We have some pretty amazing kids here!

Sign-ups and information at www.adna100celebration.weebly.com
Facebook: adna 100th year all school reunion
E-mail: adna100years@gmail.com

Information can be shared with the advantage of technology, but it all comes down to people involvement. We will need many volunteers on the day of the event. If you would like to volunteer please contact Linda Moon at 360-748-8983. Planning meeting is on the 3rd Monday of every month in the middle/high school library at 6:30 pm.

ADNA SCHOLARSHIP FOUNDATION

~ Frequently Asked Questions ~

- Donations for the auction need to be dropped off at the school by Wednesday March 14, 2018.
- Checks for donations need to be made to “Adna Scholarship Foundation” or “ASF” with “In memory of” or fund name on the memo line.
- The Auction will be celebrating 29 years at this year’s dinner on March 17, 2018.
- To start a new memorial fund you need to first contact the foundation at 360-508-1557.

Throughout the school year, we like to take pictures of our students participating in various school activities. Often we publish these pictures as a means of sharing, with the community what goes on in our schools. Such publications include, but are not restricted to, the Adna School District newsletter, The Chronicle, and the Adna School District Website. If you wish that your student not be photographed, please contact the school office or district office.
